

- Press Release:

Kinetik Productions present

Festival Kinetik 2.0

Montreal Electro-Industrial-Noise Festival

From May 14th to May 17th 2009 at the Usine C in Montreal, Canada.

After the huge success of the first edition that saw a total of more than 2,400 people during four phases, the kinetic energy is coming back to the Usine C. Festival Kinetik 2.0 will make you move with its inner force of celebrating electro-industrial noise music from May 14th to May 17th, 2009. Don't miss this unique event, that once again for its second edition will bring you bands from all around the world and includes a special place for Canadian acts, to explore electro-industrial-noise music and its different styles from the last 25 years.

According to the evolution of electronic music, including its obscure branches, and to its more known branches, this inner force, reflected in electronic music wants to lead to the maximum of senses towards new horizons. The Festival Kinetik with its 4 levels, starting with the Opening Night (phase 1 - Thursday May 14th), towards the harsh industrial dimension (phase 2 - Friday May 15th), towards the rhythmic noise night (phase 3 - Saturday May 16th), to finish with the EBM (Electronic Body Music) night (phase 4 - Sunday May 17th). The Festival Kinetik is a reflection of electronic music and its evolution during the last 25 years. It touches more than one style of music and will bring a lot of attention to the Canadian scene, with many international acts and a special place for Canadian bands.

The Festival Kinetik is a coproduction of:

Kinetik Productions, Kao Production, Android Prod & [i] Prod.
