Festival Kinetik 3.0

Montreal Electro-Industrial-Noise-EBM Festival

From May 12th to May 16th 2010 in Montreal, Canada – Usine C

After the huge success of the first two editions that saw a total of more than 2,800 people during his four phases, the kinetic energy is coming back to Montréal. Festival Kinetik 3.0 will make you move with its inner force of celebrating electro-industrial noise music from May 12th to May 16th, 2010. Don't miss this unique event, that once again for its third edition will bring you bands from all around the world with a special place for Canadian acts, to explore electro-industrial-noise music and its different styles from the last 25 years.

Eklectik Kinetik

According to the evolution of electronic music, including its obscure branches, and to its more known branches, this inner force, reflected in electronic music wants to lead to the maximum of senses towards new horizons. The Festival Kinetik with its five levels, starting with the Electro night (phase 1 - Wednesday May 12 – in collaboration with Dj Mini), towards the old school industrial dimension (phase 2 – Thursday May 13th), towards the harsh industrial / rhythmic noise nights (phase 3 & 4 – Friday & Saturday May 14th & 15th), to finish with the EBM (Electronic Body Music) night (phase 5 - Sunday May 16th). The Festival Kinetik is a reflection of electronic music and its evolution during the last 25 years. It touches more than one style of music and will bring a lot of attention to the Canadian scene, with many international acts and a special place for Canadian bands.
